Discovery Made Near Power Plant of the Ahmeek Mine in Michigan.

PRODUCTION OF MINES

Managers and Union Officials Tell Widely Different Stories on Subject.

BOUGHTON, Mich., Jan. 22.—A suit was filed today by an undersheriff in the Ahmeek mine in Keweenaw county, containing an infernal machine, according to reports received here today.

Attached to one end of a small board, according to the report, was a can partly filled with nitro-glycerin. On the other end was fastened an alarm clock and dry battery connected by wires with the can. The clock was not running when the officer opened the suitcase.

Production of Mines.

Some of the company officials claim that the mines in this district are producing approximately 20,000 tons of copper per day. This is said to be about 10 per cent of the normal production. They also claim that more than 11,000 men are at work in the mines. Union leaders say, however, that the normal output and that less than 10,000 men are now at work. The Western Federation of Miners is also claiming that the normal output is about 10,000 tons of copper per day. The union leaders are also claiming that the normal output is about 10,000 tons of copper per day.

Victory Story Denied.

BOSTON, Jan. 22.—Quincy A. Shaw, president of the Calumet & Hecla Mining company, today made public a telegram from the company's general manager at Houghton, Mich., denying that the strikers of the copper mines were being evicted. The message read: "There has not been a single case of eviction of any of our mines. We have received notices to vacate and very few have vacated, but no one has been evicted. Contrary statements are wholly untrue."

Demonstrators Dispersed.

PETERSBURG, Jan. 22.—The police today, with drawn swords, dispersed a crowd of demonstrators observing the anniversary of "Bloody Sunday," January 22, 1906, when the miners' massacre of striking workmen as they were working, led by Father Gapon, to the palace square to present to the emperor a petition for their political and economic demands.

New Home Treatment For Removing Hair

(Modes of Today.)
The following formula is now almost universally used by hair specialists for removing hair or fuzzy growths on the chin, lip or cheek: Get from a druggist a small original package of Resinol and mix enough with water to cover the hairs not wanted. Apply with a brush or finger. We have seen it come every bit of hair, and the skin should be washed following treatment to remove the remaining residue. Be careful to get the delicate, otherwise you might be disappointed. (Advertisement.)

TESTIMONY SHOWS SPEER IN BAD LIGHT

Bank Employs Son-in-law to Secure Designation as Depository for Funds.

CHARGE OF CONSPIRACY

Man Who Guaranteed Title Begins Action; Features of the Case.

MACON, Ga., Jan. 22.—Testimony on the charge that Federal Judge Speer had favored his son-in-law in his court was taken today, when the committee of the house of representatives resumed hearing testimony.

Keep Them Busy.

John M. Barnes, postmaster of Thomson and former United States marshal, charged that after his appointment as marshal, Judge Speer kept him walking "the tight rope" all the time and cited as an instance that, while court was in session, all the court attendants, including the marshal, were kept busy adjusting the window shades.

The witness charged that Judge Speer took an active part in politics and that he acted as campaign manager for Judson W. Lyons, a negro, at the Republican national convention of 1908.

Barnes testified that he went to Judge Speer to thank him for a liberal fee received as custodian in a bankruptcy case. The judge, he said, remarked: "You thank me very beautifully, but what is there in it for me?"

While acting as marshal, Barnes said he was instructed by Judge Speer to summon only white men as jurors.

Selection of Jurors.

Barnes testified that prior to the Green-Gaynor case he was instructed to bring the keys of the grand jury box to the courtroom.

Judge Speer and R. N. Talley, his secretary, were present in the room. "I don't recall whether I put my hand in the box or whether Judge Speer did, but a package of fifty names of jurors was taken out," Barnes testified.

One name which Barnes recognized was that of a prominent Populist. He had told Judge Speer, he said, that he was intelligent.

"We won't take him," he quoted Judge Speer as saying.

Another name was that of a resident of Valdosta, the home of Mr. Talley. When the name was reached, Barnes said, Judge Speer and Mr. Talley had held a long conversation in low tones.

The man was afterward made foreman of the jury. Barnes charged that the grand jury which indicted Green and Gaynor contained the names of two fugitives from justice.

TWO NEW THEATERS ADDED TO CIRCUIT

Orpheum Vaudeville to be Played at San Jose, Cal., and Vancouver, B. C.

Word was received from the New York headquarters of the Orpheum circuit last night by Leigh D. Brundage, resident manager here, of the opening of two more new houses on the circuit. This week San Jose, Cal., was added to the circuit, with the regular seven-act bill, which was an event for that California city, whose residents heretofore were wont to go forty miles to San Francisco to get their vaudeville.

Commencing February 1, Vancouver, B. C., will be the last of the big cities of the west and Canada to fall into line with Orpheum vaudeville. The old Vancouver opera house, which was originally built by the Canadian Pacific Railroad company, was recently purchased by the Pacific Northwest Orpheum circuit company and practically rebuilt and brought up-to-date at a cost of $200,000. This theater is to be included in the circuit and is under the management of James W. Pilling. The bill will be the regular seven-act aggregation of entertainers with an entire change weekly.

PRESIDENT WILSON PARTY TO CONTEST

Sixty Acres Are Involved in a Complicated Land Office Proceeding.

CHARGE OF CONSPIRACY

Man Who Guaranteed Title Begins Action; Features of the Case.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 22.—Sixty acres of date land in Coachella valley, deeded to President Wilson by his wife, was brought into contest today in a complicated proceeding before the register and receiver of the United States land office here. Two persons claim the land—the president of the United States and Homer L. Goddard, a date planter—and three different sorts of entries were filed upon it.

The contest was brought by John T. King, a rancher who sold the land to Mrs. Margaret Axon Elliott, sister of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson and wife of Edward Elliott, former dean of Princeton university, now a resident at Berkeley, Cal. Mrs. Elliott sold the property to Mrs. Wilson, and the president's wife in turn deeded it to the president.

King brought the contest, which hinges upon faulty publication of a notice of filing, because, as the seller of the land, he guaranteed the title.

Alleges Conspiracy.

In his pleading King alleges that a conspiracy to commit fraud was carried out by Mrs. Maud Compton Hensie of Los Angeles and her brother, John L. Compton, editor of a little newspaper in the Coachella valley. One of his chief exhibits is a deed naming President Wilson as the present owner of the land. If King's contest is successful the president will remain owner, but an adverse decision will turn the land over to Homer L. Goddard, an athletic director of the Los Angeles high school, who in September last paid Mrs. Hensie $500 cash and gave her a note for $500 for her relinquishment of claim. The land—an eighty-acre tract—lies in the region of the Salton sea, and is 150 feet below ocean level.

Originally King filed upon it with state lien and scrip, paying the state of California $102.76 for it. That was in 1909. Some time later, according to his statement of fact, Mrs. Axon Elliott, the president's sister-in-law, visited the valley to investigate its date-growing possibilities and he sold her sixty acres. This she subsequently turned over to Mrs. Wilson, who deeded it to her husband.

Title Guaranteed.

The remaining twenty acres were sold to another party, and in each instance King guaranteed title.

In the meantime King published notice of location and filed an application according to law, in the Coachella Valley News. The government land office found a typographical error in the legal notice and ordered a republication.

In his pleading, King alleges that Compton, as owner of the news, failed to make republication, and in the interim advised his sister to file a homestead entry on the land. Compton testified today, however, that he was not the editor of the News, which is at Indio, but of the Coachella Submarine, published at Thermas.

Before Mrs. Hensie filed her homestead claim the government had forfeited King's claim. King declares he did not know this until Mrs. Hensie took possession. While he was preparing a contest he alleged Mrs. Hensie, on September 27, 1913, relinquished her homestead claim to Homer L. Goddard, who supplanted it with a desert land entry. The points to be decided by the land office officials are:

Was King responsible for the failure to publish notice of the filing made by him, and had the government land officials the right to forfeit his claim?

Mrs. Hensie and her brother testified today there was no conspiracy between them. Several more witnesses are to be heard and the contest may not be decided for a day or two.

The second of the land transactions shows interesting features. Goddard paid Mrs. Hensie $850 for her relinquishment. For the outright and supposedly final title to the land, Mrs. Margaret Axon Elliott paid King $1900. She immediately sold the sixty acres to Mrs. Woodrow Wilson for $3000.

MAY BE NO CASE AGAINST MAJOR

He and Hawthorne Girl Had Been Living at Different Addresses.

Belief that Thomas Major, arrested in Los Angeles at the request of Mormon church officials on the charge of violating the Mann act, cannot be prosecuted because the government lacks a case, was expressed yesterday by local federal officials, following receipt of a dispatch from Los Angeles. The telegram received by Marshal James H. Anderson said that Major and Miss Nell Hawthorne, the girl in the case, had been living at two different addresses in Los Angeles.

The young woman was employed in Salt Lake as a domestic in the home of Bishop Walter J. Beattie before she left Salt Lake. The complaint filed against Major alleges that he transported Miss Hawthorne to Los Angeles for immoral purposes. He was arrested at the request of Joseph E. Robinson, president of the California Mormon mission. It is probable that the trial will take place in Los Angeles.

PROPOSED INCREASE IN RATES SUSPENDED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Proposed increases in rates on railroad shipments of potatoes in western classification territory, which would have amounted to about 20 per cent, were suspended today by the interstate commerce commission, pending investigation, from February 1 to June 1.

The commission set aside its suspension of lumber rates through Ohio river crossings, from Cairo and Thebes, Ill., and other points, to stations in Illinois and also Fort Madison, Wis.

WHITE SLAVE RING LEADER ARRESTED

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 22.—Emil G. Ducin, said by the police to be the leader of a white slave ring that has operated boldly in San Francisco for the last two years, was arrested here last night in his handsomely furnished residence. The police refused to furnish details, but said the man was arrested while riding to jail in his own automobile. He was booked on two charges of white slavery and spent the night in a cell.

Ducin is said to have amassed a fortune of $300,000 in a short time. According to the police, he was enjoying police protection and denied the white slave squad to arrest him. Ducin is alleged to have traded extensively in European women of the underworld, preventing their deportation by marrying them off to impetuous men that willingly lent their names to the women for a payment of $100.

The man came here from Johannesburg, South Africa, two years ago. He has been posing as a Jeweler, the police say.

BANK DEPOSITORS LEFT IN THE LURCH

Henry Siegel Testifies as to the Way Business of Stores Was Handled.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—Henry Siegel of the private banking firm of Henry Siegel & Co., and of the department store enterprises now in the hands of receivers, took the place of his partner, Frank E. Vogel, as a witness before Special Examiner George C. Holt today.

Vogel testified yesterday and will be examined again two weeks hence, when he is to produce his private banking books and vouchers. He said yesterday that money deposited in the private bank of Henry Siegel & Co. was used for making loans to various department stores and while his investments in the enterprises amounted to $1,400,000, but a few thousands of this money remains in his possession today.

In yesterday's report of his testimony Mr. Vogel was made to say that the Siegel stores corporation was a creditor of the Siegel stores corporation for $1,000,000. This was an error, as what Mr. Vogel said was that the Siegel stores corporation was a debtor of the Siegel stores corporation in the amount mentioned.

The witness said he and Vogel considered the money deposited in the private bank run in connection with the Fourteenth street store to be in the nature of their own private funds.

"We considered it our own private money and the obligation, a private one of Mr. Vogel and myself."

"Who first suggested that the deposits in the bank be loaned to the different stores?"

"Mr. Vogel suggested it and I agreed."

"Then I tried to understand the counsel, that it was agreed between Mr. Vogel and myself, constituting the banking firm of Henry Siegel & Co., that all claims for repayment of these moneys of the bank loaned to the stores were to be postponed until all other claims, mercantile and otherwise, were satisfied."

"Yes," answered Siegel.

"Then the only security the depositors had of their money was the different stores held by the banking firm?"

"That was all," replied Mr. Siegel, "but it was sufficient."

NEW TREATY MAY BE THE FINAL OUTCOME

after the minister had discussed the California alien law controversy and it covers the field of Japan's relations with the other world powers, reviewing the reasons for dispatch of the cruiser Idzumo to Mexico and the development of Japan's policy toward Russia and China. In this connection Baron Mikano stated emphatically that Japan already had decided to ally with Great Britain and expected in the future "greater proof of its efficiency," in the maintenance of the integrity of China.

Abstract of Address.

Following is an abstract of the address as cabled from Tokyo to the embassy: "The relations of the empire with the treaty powers continue to grow in intimacy and cordiality, and especially in China. It gives us great pleasure in view of the general situation that we have been able to act in co-operation with the powers in maintaining order in the far east. It being the fundamental principle of our Chinese policy to insure independence and integrity of that port, we are practically to maintain the same fundamental principle, and while it is a matter for sincere congratulation to the world that peace and tranquility in China were so promptly restored, it is, at the same time, an indisputable fact that restoration of peace and order was, in no small measure, due to the existence of the Anglo-Japanese alliance, which is expected in the future to give even greater proof of its efficiency in the maintenance of peace."

Relations With Russia.

"In regard to the questions respecting those territories in China where the Japanese and Russian interests are contiguous, in consequence of the conventions between the two countries, the imperial government has never neglected to understand and to take into consideration the relations between the two empires grow more and more intimate in southern Manchuria and eastern Inner Mongolia. In these regions this empire holds a special position in virtue of the treaties and on other grounds, and as those provinces, coterminous with our territories and having special relation to this empire, naturally differ from the rest of China, we have not failed to make suitable declarations as necessity arose with a view to insuring our special position in those regions."

Japanese in Mexico.

After making statement in regard to the recognition of the Chinese republic, the following statement concerning the dispatch of the cruiser Idzumo to Mexico was given: "In February last, revolution broke out in the capital of Mexico and General Huerta became provisional president. The country remained in disturbance and, since the fall of Torreón in October, the condition of affairs became even more serious. At present the number of the Japanese subjects in Mexico is close upon 3000. It need hardly be said that it became necessary to take appropriate measures for protection, foreseeing the possibility of the lives and properties of these subjects being endangered. With this view the imperial government dispatched the warship Idzumo to Mexico on the 20th of November last. She is now in communication with our minister in Mexico, so that every care is being taken that there should be no disturbance toward the protection of the Japanese residents in that country. Further, the Japanese subjects in the city of Mexico have, in co-operation with other nationals, organized volunteer

HEARINGS BEGIN IN KANSAS CITY TODAY

Secretaries McDoo and Houston Conclude With the St. Louis Bankers.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 22.—Hearings in St. Louis to determine where the regional reserve bank for this section shall be located were concluded today. The organization committee, consisting of Secretaries McDoo and Houston, left tonight for Kansas City, where hearings will be held tomorrow.

The hearing today was given over largely to bankers and business men from the smaller cities and towns adjacent to St. Louis. Most of the men urged that a regional reserve bank be located in St. Louis.

The committee was asked to include southern Illinois, Arkansas and possibly Kentucky in the St. Louis district. The plan submitted by St. Louis bankers that the district reach from the northern boundary of Missouri to the Gulf, to include Nebraska and Kansas, and run eastward through Kentucky and Tennessee, has been endorsed by business men from the south and southwest who appeared before the committee in the last two days.

W. M. Kavanaugh, president of a trust company in Little Rock, Ark., urged Secretaries Houston and McDoo to put a reserve bank in St. Louis.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—No self-avowed candidate for the federal reserve board will get a position on it, President Wilson emphasized that today.

The president does not think one should be a candidate for the federal reserve board, any more than for a place in the supreme court.
